Hon. H. Clay Evans,
Commissioner of Pensions,
Washington, D. C. O. W. & N.

Dear Sir:-

Mr. Isaac L. Manning, an old negro, has called upon me and asked me to investigate the matter of his father's pension, and I trust that it will not be too much trouble for you to give me what information you have in relation to it.

It seems as if Cato Tredwell, an old negro, was a soldier and served in the Revolutionary War; that he was drawing the sum of $96.00 a year pension; that he enlisted from Connecticut, and that he had a wife who survived him some 12 years and who never made application for the pension, or at least and in any event she never received any money. This Isaac Manning is very old and I am unable to obtain any further data from him in relation to the matter, however, I have written some letters to some of his relatives from whom I hope to hear further. However, I deem it that your records will be sufficient to give use the required information.

Kindly let me know what, if anything, they show in relation to the matter.

Very respectfully yours,
Frank J Gustin

BE IT REMEMBERED, That in the County Court, held in and for the County of Fairfield in the District and State aforesaid, on this 13th day of June 1820 the same being a Court of Record, and haivng [sic] a Seal, under the Authority of said State, personally came and appeared in open Court, Cato Tredwell, aged 57 years, resident in the Town of Huntington in the County of Fairfield in said State and being first duly sworn according to Law, doth on his oath declare that he served in the Revolutionary War, as follows:

I was enlisted about the year 1780 according to the best recollection by Capt. Gray at Stratford in said County of Fairfield, and from thence went onto the highlands near West-point, and was enrolled in Capt. Wright's company in the Regiment commanded by Col: Swift, and continued my faithful service in said Regiment until the close of the war, comprising the term of three years, when I was honorably discharged and I not having my discharge in consequence of the [lacuna] destroyed by fire soon after the war, with [lacuna] affects(?) my house being burnt up, and for the partic[ular circ]umstances relating to my service, reference may be had [lacuna – ori]ginal declaration, at the Secretary of War's office [lacuna] 3d day of March 1818.–

that the original Declaration made by him, for the purpose of obtaining a Pension, under the Act of Congress of the 30th of March, 1818, was dated the 23d day of March 1818 that in pursuance thereof he was entered in the List of Pensioners, and received a Pension Certificate No. 8502 And I do further solemnly swear that I was a resident citizen of the United States, on the 18th day of March, 1818, and that I have not since that time, by gift, sale, or in any manner, disposed of my property, or any part thereof, with intent thereby so to diminish it as to bring myself within the provisions of an Act of Congress, entitled, "An Act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War," passed on the 18th day of March, 1818; and that I have not, nor has any person in trust for me any property or securities, contracts or debts due to me; nor have I any income other than what is contained in the Schedule herein annexed, and by me subscribed. And I do further declare that my occupation is that of a day-Labourer and that I have a family residing with me viz. my wife Margaret aged 59 years, who has a shock of the numb palsey about two years ago, and ever since has been unable to do much labour, and that I am indebted ten dollars all which is subscribed by me this day and year aforesaid. Cato Tredwell

Sworn to, and declared in the Court aforesad [sic]. Whereupon said Court is, on satisfactory proof exhibited in Court, of opinion that the total amount of property contained in the aforesaid Schedule is fifty one Dollars and one Cent~~s~~, and doth order these proceedings to be entered in the Records of said Court.

Return this letter with your reply.

Sir

Yours of the 25th ult is received claiming in behalf of Isaac Lewis Treadwell, as the heir of Cato Treadwell, who was a Soldier in the war of the Revolution from Connecticut and a pensioner, the reversion of the pension to which <it is alleged> the widow of the above Soldier was entitled up to the day of her decease in 1861~

Cato Treadwell was allowed and paid a pension from 1818 to the day of his death, and if his Surviving widow Eliza was entitled to a continuance of the pension which she neglected to ~~Claim~~ <establish> during her life time, there is no law existing that will give the right to their children or other heirs to claim the Same after her decease ~

Your attention is invited to the enclosed printed circular that refers to the law preventing the favorable consideration to a pension after the decease of a Revy Soldier & his widow

Cato Tredwell – s.35358

The data which follow are obtained from the papers on file in Revolutionary War pension claim, S.35358, based upon the military service in that war of Cato Tredwell, a free man of color.

Cato Tredwell (the name also appears as Treadwell) was born and reared in Fairfield County, Connecticut. The date of his birth and the names of his parents are not shown.

Cato Tredwell enlisted at Stratford, Fairfield County, Connecticut, sometime in 1780, served as a private in Captain Joseph Allyn Wright's and Peter Robertson's Companies, Colonel Heman Swift's Connecticut Regiment and was discharged at the close of the war in 1783. It was stated that he was known in the army as Cato Freeman.

He was allowed pension on his application executed March 23, 1818, at which time he was aged fifty-five years and resided in Huntington, Fairfield, Connecticut.

In 1820, soldier referred to his wife, Margaret, as aged fifty-nine years. There are no further date in regard to her and no reference was made to children.

This history to be furnished if ever called for.
It was written just to have a Record of negro soldiers.
